

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION/ETHICS

The journal follows a policy of blind reviewing of articles/reviews submitted for publication. Only original, previously unpublished articles and those in accordance with the disciplinary requirements of the field are accepted. PJES does not ask for any publication charges from the contributors. The articles have to be either in consonance with the latest guidelines of the MLA Handbook for Research Scholars or any other acceptable, consistent system of documentation for languages and humanities.

Contributors can send their articles/book reviews etc. as e-mail attachments in Word format, along with resumes to the editor (yubee.eng@gndu.ac.in) by 20th October, 2018 for Vol. XXIV. A research article must be preceded by its abstract and a list of keywords. Scholars would be informed about the acceptance/non-acceptance of their articles through e-mail.
